SUBJECT SPECIALISMS

I have an MA in Archaeology and an MSc in Psychology along with over a decade of experience in Human Resources, Learning & Development and Finance.

I understand the language of the social sciences and humanities as well as business and academic journals. Recent work I have completed includes copyediting for an academic journal, a proofread of a memoir and a copyedit of a history book.

TRAINING AND MEMBERSHIP

I trained as a proofreader with The Publishing Training Centre and am a member of the CIEP.

- Essential Proofreading (Merit)
- Proofreading Theses and Dissertations

PROOFREADING SOLUTIONS

I provide a polished, professional finish to your manuscript, article, letter, personal statement, CV, website or report:

- addressing consistency of language, layout and style
- restructuring awkward phrases or sentences
- removing spelling, grammar and punctuation errors

YOUR NEEDS COME FIRST

I understand the demands of working in pressurized academic and professional environments and offer outstanding attention to detail, a friendly and approachable manner and a quick turnaround. I always deliver within budget, never miss a deadline, and pride myself on being able to follow a client's brief.

RECENT TESTIMONIALS

Chris, level of editing was perfect – he was thorough but didn't make unnecessary changes. I have no hesitation in recommending Chris for proofreading and light copyediting. – E.P.

Chris took a genuine interest in my memoir, guiding me to make changes resulting in a better structure and creating a more engaging narrative. – M.O.

The proofread is brilliant, annotated clearly, very thorough and is a huge improvement on my original text. – J.M.
